 Workplace: Responsibility and Execution tells two secrets to winning in the workplace: responsibility and execution.
 Modern economic model is way different from the traditional one. Due to rapid changes, we wake up every morning, only to find ourselves in a new world crowded with new problems to be fixed and researched. Many people still lack a clear understanding of these fast changes happening in the modern world and cannot keep up with the rapid pace of development. The egalitarian practice of everyone taking food from the same pot has long been canceled. Now, we are in a survival-of-the-fittest working environment. How to stand out from the furious competition and become a winner in the workplace? The book will teach you two secrets: responsibility and execution.
