

Eight Deadly Kisses: A Dark Chapter Press Anthology

Evil does not consider, or discriminate, it simply selects its target, stalks, and strikes. Evil is a concept in which the sexes are equal. Were all fair game. Dark Chapter Press is proud to present Eight Deadly Kisses. Bringing together the freshest new voices in dark fiction, to thrill you and chill you with tales focused on women facing horrors including demons, deranged car-jackers, pirates, poltergeists and a restaurant specialty that is simply to kill for. Featuring stories by Fiona Dodwell, D.A. Chaney, Alice J. Black, Veronica Smith, Sharon Higa, Audrey E.L. Coots, Erica Chin, C.A. Viruet. Dark Chapter Press and the writers gathered in this anthology have committed to supporting CAMFED, a charity providing education for girls and young women in Africa, to build brighter futures and to encourage the development of female leaders. All money received by Dark Chapter Press from sales of Eight Deadly Kisses will be donated to CAMFED.
