

FOR HOSTILITIES ONLY

This is a fictional story telling of the life and adventures of a typical family through the years of World War II. The protagonist is the second son who volunteers for service in the Royal Navy in nineteen forty three. The signing on period in wartime was For Hostilities Only. After nine weeks of training he is draughted to an aircraft carrier on which to serve out the adventurous war years. He is then draughted ashore in Ceylon to live for three months in a native banda. Eventually, after a five day train ride up through India he joins a LST (Landing Ship Tanks) to have many safer, less arduous adventures around the Far East. The adventures dont suddenly stop after his demobilisation.
